CURRENT EDUCATIONAL LITERATURE IN THE PERIODICALS

IRENE WARREN
Librarian, School of Education, University of Chicago

Broome, Edwin C. Vitalizing the high-school course of study. Educa. 35:12-15. (S. '14.)
Earle, Samuel C. English courses in the small college. English J. 16:422-26. (S. '14.)
Estee, James B. Interesting children in civic betterment through instruction by mayor and city officials: teaching them to work for public good. Craftsman 26:584-87. (S. '14.)
Fontaine, Mary B. Articulation of English teaching in the elementary and high schools. English J. 3:416-21. (S. '14.)
Griffin, Caroline. One hundred plus in the reading book. Educa. 35:21-25. (S. '14.)
Hartshorn, Helena E. The college entrance examination in English. Educa. 35:43-55. (S. '14.)
Hetherington, Clark W. The training of the physical educator and play director. Educa. R. 48:241-53. (O. '14.)

Hippensteel, H. S. The problem of the training school. Educ. 35:1-21. (S. '14.)

Kiernan, Frank. The great adventure of democracy: preparing for it by self-government in the public schools. Craftsman 26:626-30. (S. '14.)

Kirkpatrick, E. A. An experiment in memorizing versus incidental learning. J. of Educ. Psychol. 5:405-12. (S. '14.)

Lind, Samuel C. Medical inspection in the schools. The children’s point of view. Educ. 35:39-42. (S. '14.)

McCleery, Wm. J. The attendance officer, his qualifications and work. Educ. 35:16-20. (S. '14.)

Patterson, Herbert P. Ideals in present day education. Educ. R. 48:254-65. (O. '14.)

Paul, Harry G. On handling supplementary reading. II. English J. 16:427-36. (S. '14.)

Reavis, W. C. The relation between the physical and the health conditions of children and their school progress. El. School J. 15:96-105. (O. '14.)

Roore, Eloise. A picturesque Japanese finishing school where girls are taught to be charming women and good housekeepers. Craftsman 26:620-25. (S. '14.)

Sanders, Frederic W. The organization of education. Educ. 35:26-36. (S. '14.)

(The) war as an educational topic. Lit. D. 49:633. (3 O. '14.)